The Company:

PipelineVR (PVR) was founded in 2015 with the mission to accelerate the success of the global immersive technology industry.

The Market:

Facebook's $2B acquisition of OculusVR in 2014 was a watershed moment for the industry, but just the beginning. Since then, the numbers of venture capital deals and dollars invested have more than tripled.

However, despite all this capital flowing into the space, key roadblocks stand in the way of the market's scalability.

The Problem:

With an explosion of new companies and innovation, a significant fragmentation is beginning to form. Adding to the complexity are multiple customer segments, such as: medical, manufacturing and education, desperate to learn more and adapt VR/AR in their businesses. With a widening knowledge gap and no centralized way to connect buyers and sellers, the market will experience low liquidity. All problems that we solve.

The Solution:

PVR developed the first B2B marketplace solution that connects buyers and sellers of professional virtual reality and augmented reality products and services and facilitates transactions.

Business Model:

The business model is one of introduction and match. PVR will guarantee up to 5 qualified and vetted bids for each buyer request for proposal. As soon as the sellers bid's are received by the buyer, an upfront fee of $25 will be charged to sellers, automatically. We do not charge subscription fees to the seller or membership fees to the buyer.

Product Roadmap:

With our initial capital, we launched a prototype and will release a minimal viable product (MVP) in May 2016. This $750,000 final tranche to this seed round will fund several product releases, key hires, prove product market fit and begin to produce revenue.

Future development will incorporate premium, on-demand tools and services to facilitate the entire customer lifecycle e.g. custom reporting, CRM systems and transaction facilitation.

Related Party Advances

Related Party Note Payable

The Company's Chief Operating Officer loaned the company $5,000 on July 3, 2014, bearing interest at 5% and due January 3, 2015. After such date, the note incurred default interest at a rate of 8% per annum. Accrued interest of $525 and $125 is included in accrued liabilities as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

CONVERTIBLE DEBT

During the year ended December 31, 2015, 2014, and 2013 the Company entered into convertible debt agreements with third parties totaling $205,000. Each note bears interest at 5% and was or is due between August 2015 to April 2016 based on a two year maturity date. The Company has classified amounts due in excess of one year as long term in the accompanying balance sheet.

Of the convertible notes, $105,000 contain an automatic conversion upon the first series of preferred stock sales of more than $500,000, at a conversion price of 20% less than the investors of the first series of preferred stock. The notes also contain an optional conversion feature that allows the holder to convert at a conversion price of $1.00 per share prior to the maturity date. These Notes were issued in 2013 ($70,000) and 2014 ($35,000).

The remaining $100,000 note, issued in 2014, is convertible at the earliest of the following events: 1) at the lender's option to convert; 2) upon the note becoming due; and 3) the Company raising in excess of $500,000 in a qualified financing. The optional conversion is at the lower of a) the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of conversion, b) the quotient result from dividing $1,750,000 by the number of shares of fully dilutive outstanding common stock of the Company. The automatic conversion upon a qualified financing is at the lower of a) the product of 80% and the price paid per share of equity securities by investors in the next equity financing or b) the quotient resulting from dividing $1,750,000 by the number of fully dilutive shares of common stock on the date of conversion.

NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Pipeline Sports Network, Inc. (dba PipelineVR) was incorporated on August 7, 2013 ("Inception") in the State of Delaware. The Company's headquarters are located in Irvine, California. The financial statements of Pipeline Sports Network, Inc. (which may be referred to as "Pipeline," the "Company," "we," "us," or "our") are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP").

The Company is currently preparing to launch its Minimal Viable Product (MVP) on its own website (www.pipelinevr.com) which will be a platform marketplace in the virtual and augmented reality industry ("VR and AR"). Its plans are to populate the site with buyers and sellers of all things related to VR & AR, and to provide liquidity to the industry through the marketplace. The Company intends to generate revenues by earning a fee on connecting buyers with sellers.

Management's Plans

We rely heavily on debt and equity financing for working capital. As of December 31, 2015, we had negative working capital of approximately $ 281,000 and will incur additional costs prior to revenue generating activities begin. In addition, we have incurred losses since Inception. These matters raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. During the next twelve months, the Company intends to fund its operations with funding from our Regulation Crowdfunding campaign, additional debt and/or equity financings, venture capital funds, and funds from revenue producing activities. If we cannot raise additional short term capital, we may consume all of our cash reserved for operations. There are no assurances that management will be able to raise capital on terms acceptable to the Company. If we are unable to obtain sufficient amounts of additional capital, we may be required to reduce the scope of our planned development, which could harm our business, financial condition and operating results. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from these uncertainties.

SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could materially differ from these estimates. Significant estimates include, but are not limited to: valuation of stock options, useful lives of intangible assets and deferred tax assets and liabilities. It is reasonably possible that changes in estimates will occur in the near term.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Fair value is defined as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants as of the measurement date. Applicable accounting guidance provides an established hierarchy for inputs used in measuring fair value that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the most observable inputs be used when available. Observable inputs are inputs that market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability and are developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Company. Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the Company's assumptions about the factors that market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability. There are three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

Level 1 - Observable inputs that reflect quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.

Level 2 - Include other inputs that are directly or indirectly observable in the marketplace.

NOTE 3 – CONVERTIBLE DEBT

Since Inception, the Company entered into convertible note agreements with third parties totaling $205,000. The notes bear interest at 5%, and became due between August 2015 and April 2016 based on the original two-year maturity dates.

Of the convertible notes, $105,000 contain an automatic conversion upon the first series of preferred stock sales of more than $500,000, at a conversion price of 20% less than the investors of the first series of preferred stock. The notes also contain an optional conversion feature that allows the holder to convert at a conversion price of $1.00 per share prior to the maturity date. These Notes were issued in 2013 ($70,000) and 2014 ($35,000).

The remaining $100,000 note, issued in April 2014, is convertible at the earliest of the following events: 1) at the lender's option to convert; 2) upon the note becoming due; and 3) the Company raising in excess of $500,000 in a qualified financing. The optional conversion is at the lower of a) the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of conversion, b) the quotient result from dividing $1,750,000 by the number of shares of fully dilutive outstanding common stock of the Company. The automatic conversion upon a qualified financing is at the lower of a) the product of 80% and the price paid per share of equity securities by investors in the next equity financing or b) the quotient resulting from dividing $1,750,000 by the number of fully dilutive shares of common stock on the date of conversion.

To date, none of the debt holders have converted their debt and related accrued interest thereon and none of the automatic conversion features have been triggered.

The Company:

PipelineVR (PVR) was founded in 2015 with the mission to accelerate the success of the global immersive technology industry.

The Market:

Facebook's $2B acquisition of OculusVR in 2014 was a watershed moment for the industry, but just the beginning. Since then, the numbers of venture capital deals and dollars invested have more than tripled.

However, despite all this capital flowing into the space, key roadblocks stand in the way of the market's scalability.

The Problem:

With an explosion of new companies and innovation, a significant fragmentation is beginning to form. Adding to the complexity are multiple customer segments, such as: medical, manufacturing and education, desperate to learn more and adapt VR/AR in their businesses. With a widening knowledge gap and no centralized way to connect buyers and sellers, the market will experience low liquidity. All problems that we solve.

The Solution:

PVR developed the first B2B marketplace solution that connects buyers and sellers of professional virtual reality and augmented reality products and services and facilitates transactions.

Business Model:

The business model is one of introduction and match. PVR will guarantee up to 5 qualified and vetted bids for each buyer request for proposal. As soon as the sellers bid's are received by the buyer, an upfront fee of $25 will be charged to sellers, automatically. We do not charge subscription fees to the seller or membership fees to the buyer.

Product Roadmap:

With our initial capital, we launched a prototype and will release a minimal viable product (MVP) in May 2016. This $750,000 final tranche to this seed round will fund several product releases, key hires, prove product market fit and begin to produce revenue.

Future development will incorporate premium, on-demand tools and services to facilitate the entire customer lifecycle e.g. custom reporting, CRM systems and transaction facilitation.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' REVIEW REPORT

To Management and Stockholders
Pipeline Sports Network, Inc. (dba PipelineVR)
Irvine, California

We have reviewed the accompanying financial statements of Pipeline Sports Network, Inc., (dba PipelineVR, the "Company"), a corporation, which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the related statements of operations, statements of stockholders' deficit, and of cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements. A review includes primarily applying analytical procedures to management's financial data and making inquiries of company management. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error.

Accountant's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to conduct the review engagement in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services promulgated by the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the AICPA. Those standards require us to perform procedures to obtain limited assurance as a basis for reporting whether we are aware of any material modifications that should be made to the financial statements for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. We believe that the results of our procedures provide a reasonable basis for our conclusion.

Accountant's Conclusion

Based on our reviews, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Going Concern

As discussed in Note 1, certain conditions indicate that the Company may be unable to continue as a going concern. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. Our conclusion is not modified with respect to that matter.

PIPELINE SPORTS NETWORK, INC.
(dba PipelineVR)
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Pipeline Sports Network, Inc. (dba PipelineVR) was incorporated on August 7, 2013 (“Inception”) in the State of Delaware. The Company’s headquarters are located in Irvine, California. The financial statements of Pipeline Sports Network, Inc. (which may be referred to as "Pipeline," the "Company," "we," "us," or "our") are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”).

The Company is currently preparing to launch its Minimal Viable Product (MVP) on its own website (www.pipelinevr.com) which will be a platform marketplace in the virtual and augmented reality industry (“VR and AR”). Its plans are to populate the site with buyers and sellers of all things related to VR & AR, and to provide liquidity to the industry through the marketplace. The Company intends to generate revenues by earning a fee on connecting buyers with sellers.

Management’s Plans

We rely heavily on debt and equity financing for working capital. As of December 31, 2015, we had negative working capital of approximately $281,000 and will incur additional costs prior to revenue generating activities begin. In addition, we have incurred losses since Inception. These matters raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. During the next twelve months, the Company intends to fund its operations with funding from our Regulation Crowdfunding campaign, additional debt and/or equity financings, venture capital funds, and funds from revenue producing activities. If we cannot raise additional short term capital, we may consume all of our cash reserved for operations. There are no assurances that management will be able to raise capital on terms acceptable to the Company. If we are unable to obtain sufficient amounts of additional capital, we may be required to reduce the scope of our planned development, which could harm our business, financial condition and operating results. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from these uncertainties.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLOCIES

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could materially differ from these estimates. Significant estimates include, but are not limited to: valuation of stock options, useful lives of intangible assets and deferred tax assets and liabilities. It is reasonably possible that changes in estimates will occur in the near term.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Fair value is defined as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants as of the measurement date. Applicable accounting guidance provides an established hierarchy for inputs used in measuring fair value that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the most observable inputs be used when available. Observable inputs are inputs that market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability and are developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Company. Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the Company’s assumptions about the factors that market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability. There are three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

- Level 1 - Observable inputs that reflect quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2 - Include other inputs that are directly or indirectly observable in the marketplace.

See accompanying accountants’ review report

PIPELINE SPORTS NETWORK, INC.
(dba PipelineVR)
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(unaudited)

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs which are supported by little or no market activity.

The fair value hierarchy also requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value.

Fair-value estimates discussed herein are based upon certain market assumptions and pertinent information available to management as of December 31, 2015 and 2014. The respective carrying value of certain on-balance-sheet financial instruments approximated their fair values. These financial instruments include cash, accounts payable, accrued liabilities, related party advances, and convertible debt. Fair values for these items were assumed to approximate carrying values because of their short term in nature or they are payable on demand.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Company has a limited operating history and has not commenced revenue generating activities. The Company's business and operations are sensitive to general business and economic conditions in the U.S. and worldwide along with governmental policy decisions. A host of factors beyond the Company's control could cause fluctuations in these conditions. Adverse developments may also include: economic recessions, trends in the virtual reality space, consumer taste for virtual reality products, the availability of virtual reality content, and changes government policy related to online commerce which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition and the results of its operations.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purpose of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. The Company's fixed assets are depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of three years. Leasehold improvements are depreciated over shorter of the useful life or lease life. Maintenance and repairs are charged to operations as incurred. Significant renewals and betterments are capitalized. At the time of retirement or other disposition of property and equipment, the cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is reflected in operations.

Depreciation expense for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 was $1,767 and $1,178, respectively.

Impairment of Long-Lived assets

The long-lived assets held and used by the Company are reviewed for impairment no less frequently than annually or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. In the event that facts and circumstances indicate that the cost of any long-lived assets may be impaired, an evaluation of recoverability is performed. There were no impairment losses during the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014. There can be no assurance, however, that market conditions will not change or demand for the Company's products and services will continue, which could result in impairment of long-lived assets in the future.

Convertible Debt with Conversion or Other Options

Debt issued with common stock is accounted for under the guidelines established by ASC 470-20 – "Accounting for Debt with Conversion or Other Options." We record the relative fair value of common stock related to the issuance of convertible debt as a debt discount or premium. The discount or premium is subsequently amortized to interest expense over the expected term of the convertible debt.

(unaudited)

Revenue Recognition

The Company will recognize revenues from fees collected from the seller of VR and AR goods through our website when (a) persuasive evidence that an agreement exists; (b) the products have been delivered; (c) the prices are fixed and determinable and not subject to refund or adjustment; and (d) collection of the amounts due is reasonably assured. As of the date of this report, the Company has not yet commenced revenue generating activities.

Stock Based Compensation

The Company accounts for stock options issued to employees under ASC 718 “Share-Based Payment”. Under ASC 718, share-based compensation cost to employees is measured at the grant date, based on the estimated fair value of the award, and is recognized as expense over the employee’s requisite vesting period. The fair value of each stock option or warrant award is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option valuation model.

In accordance with the guidance, an asset acquired in exchange for issuance of fully vested, non-forfeitable equity instruments should not be presented or classified as an offset to equity on the grantor’s balance sheet once the equity instrument is granted for accounting purposes.

The Company measures compensation expense for its non-employee stock-based compensation under ASC 505 “Equity.” The fair value of the option issued or committed to be issued is used to measure the transaction, as this is more reliable than the fair value of the services received. The fair value is measured at the value of the Company’s common stock on the date that the commitment for performance by the counterparty has been reached or the counterparty’s performance is complete. The fair value of the equity instrument is charged directly to stock-based compensation expense and credited to additional paid-in capital.

Income Taxes

The Company applies ASC 740 “Income Taxes” (“ASC 740”). Deferred income taxes are recognized for the tax consequences in future years of differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their financial statement reported amounts at each period end, based on enacted tax laws and statutory tax rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established, when necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. The provision for income taxes represents the tax expense for the period, if any, and the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities. At December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company has established a full reserve against all deferred tax assets.

ASC 740 also provides criteria for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of uncertain tax positions. A tax benefit from an uncertain position is recognized only if it is “more likely than not” that the position is sustainable upon examination by the relevant taxing authority based on its technical merit.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash with a major financial institution located in the United States of America which it believes to be credit worthy. Balances are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000. At times, the Company maintains balances in excess of the federally insured limits.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-09, “Revenue from Contracts with Customers”. Under this guidance, revenue is recognized when promised goods or services are transferred to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration that is expected to be received for those goods or services. The updated standard will replace most existing revenue recognition guidance under U.S. GAAP when it becomes effective and permits the use of either the retrospective or cumulative effect transition method. Early adoption is not permitted. The updated standard will be effective beginning January 1, 2018. We are currently evaluating the effect that the updated standard will have on our financial statements and related disclosures.

In April 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-05 "Intangibles-Goodwill and Other-Internal-Use Software." The standard amended the existing accounting standards for intangible assets and provides explicit guidance to customers in determining the accounting for fees paid in a cloud computing arrangement, wherein the arrangements that do not convey a software license to the customer are accounted for as service contracts. The pronouncement is effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2015. We are currently evaluating the effect that the updated standard will have on our financial statements and related disclosures.

In November 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-17, "Income Taxes: Balance Sheet Classification of Deferred Taxes", which requires deferred tax liabilities and assets to be classified as noncurrent in a classified statement of financial position. ASU 2015-17 will align the presentation of deferred income tax assets and liabilities with International Financial Reporting Standards. The new standard will be effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2016, including interim periods within those annual years, and early application is permitted. We are currently evaluating the effect that the updated standard will have on our financial statements and related disclosures.

The FASB issues ASUs to amend the authoritative literature in ASC. There have been a number of ASUs to date, including those above, that amend the original text of ASC. Management believes that those issued to date either (i) provide supplemental guidance, (ii) are technical corrections, (iii) are not applicable to us or (iv) are not expected to have a significant impact our financial statements.

NOTE 3 – CONVERTIBLE DEBT

Since Inception, the Company entered into convertible note agreements with third parties totaling $205,000. The notes bear interest at 5%, and became due between August 2015 and April 2016 based on the original two-year maturity dates.

Of the convertible notes, $105,000 contain an automatic conversion upon the first series of preferred stock sales of more than $500,000, at a conversion price of 20% less than the investors of the first series of preferred stock. The notes also contain an optional conversion feature that allows the holder to convert at a conversion price of $1.00 per share prior to the maturity date. These Notes were issued in 2013 ($70,000) and 2014 ($35,000).

The remaining $100,000 note, issued in April 2014, is convertible at the earliest of the following events: 1) at the lender's option to convert; 2) upon the note becoming due; and 3) the Company raising in excess of $500,000 in a qualified financing. The optional conversion is at the lower of a) the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of conversion, b) the quotient result from dividing $1,750,000 by the number of shares of fully dilutive outstanding common stock of the Company. The automatic conversion upon a qualified financing is at the lower of a) the product of 80% and the price paid per share of equity securities by investors in the next equity financing or b) the quotient resulting from dividing $1,750,000 by the number of fully dilutive shares of common stock on the date of conversion.

To date, none of the debt holders have converted their debt and related accrued interest thereon and none of the automatic conversion features have been triggered.

Risk Factors

The Company has a limited operating history and has not commenced revenue-generating activities.

The Company's business and operations are sensitive to general business and economic conditions in the U.S. and worldwide along with governmental policy decisions. A host of factors beyond the Company's control could cause fluctuations in these conditions. Other adverse developments may also include: economic recessions, trends in the virtual reality space, consumer taste for virtual reality products, the availability of virtual reality content, and changes in government policy related to online commerce, which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition and the results of its operations.

We are issuing non-voting common stock. In our company, the class and voting structure of our stock has the effect of concentrating voting control with a few people and these few people have the ability to make all major decisions regarding the company. As a minority holder you will have limited ability, if at all, to influence our policies or any other corporate matter, including the election of directors, changes to our company's governance documents, additional issuances of securities, company repurchases of securities, a sale of the company or of assets of the company or transactions with related parties.

Investors should understand the potential for dilution. The investor's stake in a company could be diluted due to the company issuing additional shares. In other words, when the company issues more shares, the percentage of the company that you own will go down, even though the value of the company may go up. You will own a smaller piece of a larger company. This increase in number of shares outstanding could result from a stock offering (such as an initial public offering, another crowd funding round, a venture capital round, angel investment), employees exercising stock options, or by conversion of certain instruments (e.g. convertible bonds, preferred shares or warrants) into stock.

If the company decides to issue more shares, an investor could experience value dilution, with each share being worth less than before, and control dilution, with the total percentage an investor owns being less than before. There may also be earnings dilution, with a reduction in the amount earned per share (though this typically occurs only if the company offers dividends, and most early stage companies are unlikely to offer dividends, preferring to invest any earnings into the company).
